

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 8, 1890.

NO. 11

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—A very large transient list at hotels here during the last 30 days.

—Wm. Tower's house was struck by lightning and burned last week.

—Miss Alma Carson, who taught so successfully at Brodhead a number of years, has a flourishing school at Guthrie, I. T.

—Miss Maggie Myers, a little Rockcastle beauty, who has been attending school at Memphis, Tenn., the last four years, arrived home Saturday, accompanied by her brother Samuel. Mrs. Mary Conn is visiting relatives in Kansas. Mrs. Carrie Graves was down from Rowland Saturday to see relatives. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Boden are visiting friends here.

—A little 3-year-old adopted child of David Pitman narrowly escaped being crushed to death by a wagon Saturday afternoon near this place. A wagon loaded with lumber stopped in front of Mr. Pitman's house. The driver got off and stepped away to talk to that gentleman. The child unnoticed climbed upon the wagon, unfastened the reins and the horses started down an incline, when the men rushed to the rescue of the little one, who lost its balance and fell between the wheels just as the men reached the wagon. Mr. Pitman seized the wheel while the driver dragged the child from its perilous position. One of its ears was badly cut by the wheel.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—T. J. Cross sold to J. M. Hall 39 ewes at $3.50.

—Frank Winfrey sold to James Gastineau a 3-year-old gelding for $125.

—Extra seed corn for sale at 75 cents a bushel. Thornton Porter, Stanford.

—J. S. Roberts bought the Danville Planing Mill and lot for $9,200.—Advocate.

—Old Burley tobacco is selling in Louisville at $2 to $2.50 per cwt., and new at $3 to $4.50.

—Johnson, of Boyle, bought of West End parties 22 head of 3 and 4-year-old cattle at 2 1/2 to 3 cents.

—Hunn & Burns bought in Casey a bunch of 2-year-old heifers at 2 1/2 cents and a lot of butcher stuff at 2 1/2 cents.

—Some scrub cattle sold yesterday at $14 a head and plug horses at $50 to $75. There was a very large crowd in town.

—Farm of 5 1/2 acres of land on Crab Orchard pike, 3 miles from Stanford, for sale. Apply at INTERIOR JOURNAL office.

—C. J. Jackson has sold to Shaloon Bros., of Wayne, his farm, the Bogle place, about 180 acres, for $25 per acre.—Somerset Reporter.

—J. C. Fox, of Lincoln, bought in this county a pair of aged mules for $800; one 2-year-old mule for $102.50 and 2 mares at $125.—Lancaster News.

—The Richloff herd of 100 St. Lambert Jerseys sold at Denver to McKinley, of Pennsylvania, for $40,000 cash and will be shipped to that State.

—Robert Duncan sold his farm on the outskirts of Nicholasville, containing 187 acres to a syndicate at $200. The Journal notes several other deals in real estate, which shows some symptoms of a boom there.

—E. P. James delivered to R. Hayden, of Nelson county, 25 extra sugar colt mules, April 1st, at $2,800 for the bunch. Mr. James bought of A. B. Kirby, 23 extra cotton colt mules at $75.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Tate & Catron have bought the Brinkley livery stable and the lot on which it stands from Mrs. Mary Brinkley for $4,125. Same firm sold to Samuel Quarles Gover 16 head of yearling past steers for $14 per head.—Somerset Republican.

—Major John D. Harris sold last Saturday to Messrs Simmons & Ross 70,000 pounds of tobacco at 10 cents per pound. Mr. Overton Biggerstaff, who lives on the Jack's Creek pike, had 19 fine lambs killed Monday night by dogs.—Richmond Register.

—The Courier-Journal has reports from many counties in Kentucky, Tennessee, Southern Indiana, North Alabama and Ohio, which shows that the wheat outlook in Kentucky and Alabama is for a nearly average crop, while across the Ohio and in Tennessee the prospects are not so good. This is especially the case in the border counties of Indiana, where cold and wet weather has played havoc with the grain.

—James Sloan, white, and Robert Burgin, black, engaged in a row at Greenwood, Pulaski county, when Sloan drew a pistol and tried to shoot the negro. The weapon missed fire and the latter went off to arm himself. Sloan and his brother followed with a Winchester rifle. The negro went into a saloon and when Sloan entered he shot him with a gun he grabbed from behind the counter. Sloan fired at the same time and Burgin ran about 20 yards and fell dead. The ball from Burgin's gun did not go amiss, as he died from its effects an hour afterwards. Burgin had been in several difficulties and is reported as having killed two men at Jellico. He had an eyeshot out in a difficulty.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

—The $30,000 appropriated by the legislature for the tornado sufferers is now being applied through official agents.

—Senator Wortham's bill has become a law, and 1-cent ante poker around the family centre-table has become a high misdemeanor. Likewise there can be no wagers to add interest to neighborly games of whist.—Lou. Commercial.

—Mr. Warren presented the bill to change the time of holding the Lincoln county court from the first to the second Monday in each month. It was the 1,496th bill presented in the House and the 1,500th to amend the charter of the town of Hustonville. Both passed that body.

—Mr. Smith's bill providing for the placing of all convicts under 16 years of age in some charitable institution until they are of age or their sentence expires, was favorably reported and passed, with an amendment making it apply to those now in the penitentiary.

—The House has passed the bill to give commonwealth's attorneys $2,500 a year in lieu of fees, but the senate would do well to stop and consider whether those gentlemen are worth that much to the State. We think it is capable of proof that many of them are not.

—A bill to prevent cruelty to animals, which would prohibit turkey and pigeon shooting, cock fights and every species of sport or work which inflicts unnecessary pain upon bird or beast, was favorably reported by the House committee on criminal laws and placed in the orders of the day.

—A reconsideration of the tax reduction veto was moved Saturday and the friends of the governor succeeded in preventing the tabling of the motion and the question will be up again one day this week. It is not likely that the Senate will approve of the House's action in passing the bill over the veto.

—Mr. Smith, of Madison, offered a resolution to re-instate Mr. John A. Baird, the correspondent of the Louisville Post, but upon the earnest appeals of Letterie Bartman, Louisville members, to the House to stand by them, the resolution was withdrawn, whereupon the Post fires this hot shot: "If the Legislature feels that it is doing its duty in standing by Letterie, Bartman and the other traitors who betrayed their constituents in the lottery fight, the Post feels that it is being done a distinguished honor when it is refused admission to the floor. The Post desires no higher compliment in the eyes of all honest men than the public enmity of Letterie, Bartman and the other pothouse politicians of that ilk. The ill-will of such cattle is the highest praise an upright newspaper could receive."

The performances of French & Co.'s Great Railroad Circus, Museum Menagerie and Hippodrome were greeted yesterday by packed houses, and the extraordinary performances of this unrivalled aggregation of first-class female equestriennes and male riders, singing and grotesque clowns, acrobats and aerial exhibitions of strength and agility, and last though not least, the wonderful performances of the highly educated horses, ponies, mules, goats and dogs were received with shouts of laughter and applause. To say that the show gave universal satisfaction, would be only to repeat what has been said of it by our exchanges throughout the country during the past season.

The management are to be congratulated upon their thorough efficiency in looking after their legion of patrons more particularly in the absence of all the rough element, of card sharpers and swindling devices so common with the many shows that infest the country during the tenting season, in addition to this feature, and the gentlemanly manner of all connected with the show we bespeak for it the immense business they are bound to receive.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

At Stanford Friday, April 18.

—Another war has broken out in Rowan over the disturbance of several distilleries by the revenue officers. The moonshiners have shot six men from ambush more or less seriously because they suspected them of telling on them.

—Gen. Dan E. Sickles, who has just been appointed sheriff of New York, has had a varied career. He has been legislator, Congressman and secretary of legation at London, rose from colonel to general in the late war, in which he lost a leg, went as Minister to Spain in 1868, &c. In 1857, while serving as Congressman, he discovered the unfaithfulness of his wife and killed her paramour, Philip Barton Key, and was acquitted in a trial for murder which lasted 20 days.

A fine head of virgin-gold colored hair will bring from $200 to $500, according to its length and luxuriance and to those who have it and are anxious to convert it into hard cash, it may be pleasing to hear that there are orders in advance for all that can be produced of this description for the next five years.—Chatter.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Elders Rice and Huffaker's meeting at Williamsburg, had resulted in 41 additions to last accounts.

—A prize of $500 has been offered by the British Sunday-school union for the best tale on gambling, "to be drawn as far as possible from actual life," and "to vividly depict the evils of gambling."

—R. A. Robinson has offered to donate $10,000 to the rebuilding of St. John's Episcopal church, which was destroyed by the tornado in Louisville, and will guarantee $25,000 to the fund.

—Sixty-eight persons were converted under Elder Lucas' powerful presentation of the gospel, at the meeting at the Christian church just closed, all of whom have been baptised and received into the church.—Hopkinsville New Era.

—The quarterly meeting will be held at McKendree next Saturday and Sunday, when there will be no preaching at the Methodist church here. Mr. Godbey announces, however, that he will devote the 3d Sunday, which is usually given to McKendree, to this church.

—The stone from Calvary which is to form the corner of Dr. Talmage's new tabernacle arrived at Brooklyn Friday on the steamer Giava. It is about three feet square and 10 inches thick and weighs nearly 325 pounds. Its color is dark red. The legend is that the stone is the one upon which the Savior stepped while on his way to the cross.

—Rev. W. B. Arvin, pastor of the Campbellsville Baptist church, after a protracted illness, aged 48, is dead. Under his ministrations, the membership increased from 70 to 300 and through his influence and efforts the splendid new Baptist church at that place was built. His illness commenced before its completion and he never had the pleasure of preaching in it or seeing it after its completion. His last words were, "Oh! how beautiful."

—The announcement of an Easter Song Service drew quite an additional crowd to the Methodist church Sunday morning and all who went were fully repaid. The choir embraces some of the best singers in town and strengthened by the addition of Miss Libbie Pegan, of Millersburg College, and Miss Dollie Williams, of Stanford College, it made music worth listening to. Miss Pegan, who is a very lovely young lady, sang a solo, which demonstrated the sweet and cultivated voice she possesses. Mr. Godbey preached a very appropriate sermon from the text "Come and see where the Lord lay."

UNLIMITED CREDIT.

What His Mother Would Do If She Were Short of Money.

A country schoolmistress had much trouble with her pupils and to avoid it made her examples placed before them of an explanatory character or illustrative. The effect was often unexpected. In going over their usual reading lesson a line was chosen by the lady upon which to test the merits of the scholars. The line read: "And he was a man of unlimited credit in business."

"Now, John, can you tell me what is meant by the word credit when used as in this lesson?"

"Thus she addressed one of the stumbling-blocks of the school."

"I dunno, marm," said Johnny, looking sheepishly.

"You don't know?" said the mistress. "Well, look here. Suppose your mother was to come short of money at the latter part of the week and needed provisions, etc., now what would she do?"

She was satisfied that her illustration was plain and awaited the correct reply and it came thus:

"Well, marm," replied Johnny, "I dunno what she would do unless she pawned dad's Sunday coat."

The subject was instantly dropped and the teacher has lost all faith in that style of illustration.—Young Ladies' Journal.

A Warm Winter.

Among the many oddities of this warm winter we note the following:

Pandy lynx stories bloomed all over the country long after Christmas.

Blizzards coming East wore straw hats and dusters.

Grass grew in the streets of Philadelphia during all the winter months.

A warm feeling prevailed between B. Harrison and Baby McKee.

Spring-bottom pantaloons appeared on the streets as early as January 1.

Home-grown strawberry ice-cream could be had all through December and January.

Flowers of sulphur bloomed in the drug stores.

Spring chickens ripened every month of the winter.—Judge.

The Art of Acting.

James—Hullo, De Forest. How's the world usin' ye, me boy?

De Forest—Now is the winter of our discontent. Bad, bad, Jimmy. I'm playing Buckingham in Richard, at fifteen a week. But, anon, what cheer with you?

James—Hippopotamus in the Tin Hippopotamus at two hundred. Come and dine with me.—Harper's Weekly.

She Knew Him.

Father—Young Einstein has been devoted to you for two or three years, hasn't he?

Daughter—Yes, papa.

Father—Isn't he very slow about proposing?

Daughter—Yes, Jake is a little slow, but (confidently) he'll get there all the same.—Chatter.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—The ladies of the Methodist church gave a dining and supper on the 4th and realized about $130.

—At the sale of the Danville Planing Mill last Thursday Mr. J. S. Roberts, one of the partners, bought the machinery and real estate for $9,200.

—A base ball game was played Saturday morning between the Kentucky University and Centre College teams. At the close of the game the score stood Ky. U. 11 C. C. 19.

—An election was held Saturday for a new board of councilmen under the last town charter. Out of 6 wards four elected democratic councilmen. In the 1st ward Archer Rochester and Evan Cowan, negroes, were elected. Jackson Davis, democrat, received 15 votes; Peter Gilcher, democrat, 16 votes; Archer Rochester 135; Evan Cowan 137. In the 4th ward G. W. Welsh and G. D. Batterton, republicans, were elected.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—The announcement of the marriage of Col. Sam M. Burdett is a genuine surprise to his friends hereabouts, who were not even aware that he was courting. The interesting event occurred in St. John's Cathedral, Denver, Col., on the 24th ult. and the fortunate lady was Miss Clara Russell, daughter of an extensive manufacturer at Massillon, O. Sam is one of the best fellows in the world and legions of friends will rejoice at his good fortune. The newspaper men, unite in sending warmest congratulations and good wishes for a long life of unalloyed happiness with the one of his choice. Col. and Mrs. Burdett will be at home to their friends after the 8th, at 224 Michigan avenue, Chicago.

THE Committee on Charitable Institutions made a majority and a minority report in the House. Both showed the crowded condition of the lunatic asylums and both demand immediate relief. The majority thinks that this should be had in the establishment of a new asylum, as enlarging prevents the classification of patients, and does them very much more harm than good; prevents them from receiving individual care and attention and makes it impossible for the institutions to result in the greatest good. It therefore presents a bill to appropriate $100,000 for a new asylum and provides for the appointment of three commissioners to determine upon the location. The minority report is for the enlargement of the three asylums, which could be done, it says, for $30,000 and save the additional set of officers that a new institution would require. Humanity demands that something be done at once, as there are men and women suffering in the jails of many counties because of a lack of accommodations for them at the asylums, which are now over-crowded. The Western asylum has room for only 550, yet the present occupancy is 563. In the Eastern asylum are 730 patients with room only for 695. In the Central alone is there more room than patients, it having room for 750, with 720 occupants. It is thought that the majority report will be adopted. Another asylum is inevitable in the near future and the difference in securing it now to enlarging is not sufficient to make the latter an argument.

SOME days ago Gen. Boynton, the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, published a statement that Col. De Armand, the Russian who is prosecuting a claim for services during the war, was a spy against the government. The colonel on seeing this marched to the general's office and demanded a retraction. The general declined to retract, when the colonel branded him as a coward. Thereupon the general threw the colonel headforemost through the door. After getting himself together and taking in the situation fully, the colonel was satisfied that the general was not a coward, so he acknowledged his mistake and apologized.

THERE is a great revolt in the republican party in Iowa against the prohibition element which has been running it for some years, and succeeded in running it pretty much into the ground. The seriousness and weight of the movement is indicated by the fact that ex-governor, ex-Secretary of the Interior Kirkwood, the war governor of the State, is one of the leaders in it.—Louisville Commercial. Jess so. Iowa has a democratic governor for the first time in 30 odd years and in 1892 she will give her electoral vote to the democratic candidates for president and vice-president.

THE Board of Equalization has completed its labors, which resulted in about $2,000,000 being added to the taxable property of the State. Among the counties in this vicinity in which no change was made from the assessor's returns are Casey, Garrard, Jessamine, Madison, Pulaski, Rockcastle and Wayne. Among those increased are Anderson 6 per cent, Lincoln 2; Macon 4 and Mercer 3, while Boyle gets a reduction of 15; Laurel 3, Whitley 7, Jackson 5 and Owsley 10.

THE democratic candidate for governor in Rhode Island got a plurality of the votes cast at the election last week, but Little R. R. is not under a republican form of government, so the election goes to the Legislature. There is a probability that that body too is democratic and that justice will prevail. The democratic candidate for governor last year received more votes than any other candidate, but the Legislature, being republican, chose the republican candidate.

THE Interstate News, published at Williamsburg and Jellico, has been leased by Mr. G. A. Denham to J. E. Murrell and Wm. McCormick, and if the latter is half as good a newspaper man as the former they will make a capital paper. Let us suggest, however, that they substitute some other head for their personal column besides "Personalities." The word may be good, but it is nearly always used in a disparaging sense.

THE House by a vote of 65 to 20 refused to accept the governor's veto of the tax-reduction bill. The opposition was headed by Smith, of Madison, who made his race on the promise of a reduction and it seems he was determined to keep his word even at the expense of right and justice. Mr. Warren, who was glad to say, is recorded with the 20 who stood by the governor.

THE Bowman Brothers have enlarged the Woodford Sun to an eight column quarto, making it the largest weekly in the State outside of the Courier-Journal. The young men are making a first rate paper out of it besides, and show that they are worthy successors of their lamented father.

A FEW men signing themselves "Elliott County Democrats" have condemned Judge Kincaid without judge or jury. They write to the Catlettsburg Democrat: "Our people were deeply grieved at the untimely death of the late Hon. W. P. Taulbee. In his death at the hands of Charles E. Kincaid they feel and believe that a foul and deliberate murder has been committed and that unerring justice should be meted out speedily to his slayer. The people of the 10th district, almost without regard to party, believe he was incapable of doing an intentional wrong. They take no stock in the foul slanders hurled at him by a portion of the State press, and especially by the man who has foully consummated the crowning act of the infamous proceedings by shooting him down like a dog."

GEORGE DENNY talked very exultantly to the Lexington Transcript with reference to his contest with Col. W. O. Bradley for National Committeeman, and said he would have been elected by a majority of three had not two men proved unmindful of their promises. The truth of the matter is that Col. Bradley would have been elected with the forces on hand had he not released Wood Dunslop, who was under obligations to him, so that he could vote for his brother-in-law. The committeeman for the 3d district was also for Bradley, but could not get to the meeting on account of high water, nor could telegram reach him for same reason. The contest was postponed for a year, when we hope to see the Garrard county entry come out with the blue colors flying.

THE Judiciary committee of the House has agreed to favorably report an amendment to the constitution providing that U. S. Senators be elected by direct vote of the people, instead of by the legislatures, but it will not be adopted, even if the House should pass it. The Senate, which is composed for the most part of men who have purchased their seats, would never agree to this change of the constitution. It is easier and cheaper to buy a legislature than to face the people, who would count brains and character, more highly than money and mediocrity.

THE contest over the will of the late Joseph Page, which was had before Judge Varnon Friday and Saturday resulted in its being sustained. H. S. Jones and wife alleged that he was not in a mental condition to make a will and had been unduly influenced in currying their share. They were represented by Miller & Owsley and A. M. Frye and wife, John D. Page and Mrs. George Adams by J. W. Alcorn. The matter will be appealed to the circuit court.

Mrs. L. C. NORMAN, State Auditor by appointment, has announced himself a candidate for the office at the election in 1891. He served the South gallantly during the war, has been State senator and was insurance commissioner for 12 years. He is a good man, a brave man and a competent man, but the fates have decreed, and the democratic party will enforce it, that Hon. Milton J. Durham will be the next Auditor of Kentucky.

THE McComas bill to prevent gerrymandering has been favorably reported, but it is only a huge bluff. It stopped several legislatures from redistricting their States, including Kentucky's, which has found out the true inwardness of the matter and will proceed to redistrict the State as it ought to do. It can't hurt, even if the McComas bill should pass a partisan Congress.

THE Louisville Post gives it as expert opinion that the story about the woman being blown out of her house into the top of a tree and having every stitch of clothing torn off en route, is a lie. Well, we won't dogmatize. A paper that has been at that business so long certainly ought to know a lie when it meets it.

MAYOR JACOB's proclamation calling on the citizens of Louisville to observe Good Friday as a day of fasting and prayer, was a wonderful production. The writer was evidently excited and his nerves unstrung.

NEWS CONDENSED

—The Monon road subscribed $2,500 to the Louisville relief fund.
—Thomas G. Murrell, oldest son of the late H. C. Murrell, is dead at Louisville.
—Lawrenceburg has been made a presidential office and T. J. Ballard appointed postmaster.
—The Rhode Island legislature stands 47 republicans to 44 democrats, with 17 members yet to be elected.
—It has been found that outside of Louisville, in Kentucky, 59 persons were killed and 207 wounded by the tornado of March 27.
—William Williams, a negro, who confessed to raping a 7-year-old child, was taken from the officers at Kosse, Texas, and hanged.
—Senator Brice, of Ohio, has bought the Ft. Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville Railway, generally known as the Muncie Road, for $2,500,000.
—The republicans voted to admit Idaho into the Union. The democrats refused to vote, but Reed counted them anyway and the question will be taken to the Supreme Court.
—The president has nominated Louis A. Grant, of Minnesota, to be assistant secretary of war; Brigadier General Nelson A. Miles to be major-general.

—At Homerville, Ga., Robert McCoy and William Hicks (colored) were hanged Friday for the murder of William Hughes and his wife last November.

—The old Greeley homestead, built by Horace Greeley, near Chippaquana, N. Y., was destroyed by fire in the absence of its owner, Miss Gabrielle Greeley.

—The Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac will double track its road from Richmond to Washington, the money to be raised by mortgage for $2,000,000.

—There are now in New York City 8,885 places licensed for the sale of liquors, a decrease of 78 in the number of saloon license during the year. The receipts were $1,442,770, an increase of $12,350 over those of 1888.

—Marcus C. Sterna, of Chicago, worth a million and a half, fired four bullets into his head with suicidal intent, but failed to accomplish his end. His mind has been affected since the death of his daughter, Mrs. Carter Harrison.

—When Chicago burned down in 1871 Louisville contributed $200,000 to the sufferers. When Louisville had a flood in 1884 Chicago contributed $1. When a part of Louisville has blown down Chicago has contributed nothing.

—H. W. Goins, a lawyer at Jellico, was killed with buckshot by John Cates, of Newcomb, Tenn., because he was too attentive to the latter's wife. If Goins recovers he will be too badly disfigured to be much of a Don Juan in the future.

—A Kansas husband has been sent to jail for 90 days for whipping his wife. It is laid down in Blackstone, who gets it from Coke, that a man may moderately discipline his wife, provided he does not use a whip "larger than his little finger."

—Rebecca Shipley, of Staunton, Va., has been arrested in Philadelphia for shop-lifting to the amount of $700. She acknowledges the corn and says she did it because it was so romantic. It is stated that she is wealthy and charitable and the freak due entirely to mental derangement.

—Gov. Buckner has issued a proclamation designating April 12 as Arbor day and recommending that all public schools and colleges of the State observe the same by suitable exercises, having for their object the imparting of knowledge in arboriculture and the adornment of schools and public grounds.

—Dan & Co's. commercial report for the first three months of the year, shows the country to be in a most prosperous financial condition. There have been fewer failures and smaller liabilities; a larger railroad tonnage than ever recorded before; heavier foreign trade than is usual for the season, with a greater domestic consumption in nearly every article.

—Members of the Virginia and North Carolina delegations in the House have sent a petition to Speaker Reed requesting him to recognize one of their number, for the purpose of moving, under a suspension of the rules, the repeal of the tobacco tax. What Reed will do is a question of some interest, since he was the first to denounce Mr. Carlisle's action when he declined to entertain a similar motion.

PRINCE.

I will stand my fine young horse, Prince, season of 1890, five miles east of Stanford on the Stanford & Precher's pike at $7 to insure a colt to get up, walk around the mare and suck. No colt, no pay. Prince is a fine, stylish, black horse, 7 years old this spring, 15½ hands high. His sire was out of a Denmark mare and was sired by a Drennon horse. His dam was sired by a Drennon horse and out of a Whip mare. He is a natural galloper and a good jumper.

Modoo.

He is 5 years old, about 15 hands high, black with nearly nose, fine length and form. He was sired by Arch Walker's Jack and out of my old jennet. He will stand at $10 to insure colt to get up, walk around the mare and suck. No colt, no pay. This Jack has given 20 per cent. better satisfaction than any Jack I ever stood. Call and see him and his colts.

Mares bred to either of these and traded or removed from the neighborhood without satisfying me that they are not in foal forfeit the season and money is due. I also hold a lien on the colt until the season is paid. — SILAS ANDERSON.

FOR SALE.

As trustee of Mrs. V. A. Bohon, dec'd, I will, in order to close up the estate, sell to the highest bidder on MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1890, (county court day), on the premises, the BUSINESS HOUSE on Third and Main streets, in Danville, now occupied by J. H. Otter. The property is now under a three years' lease to an excellent tenant, and will prove a profitable investment to the purchaser. It is one of the best locations in Danville for a business house, commands a good rental and is never vacant. Sale will take place at 2 o'clock on the above day, when the terms will be made known. — H. C. BOHON, Trustee.

Attention, Coal Burners.
I keep on hand a No. 1 quality of Jellico, Lily and Nut coal in my yard. Leave your orders at Vard and they will be attended to promptly. — J. E. HIGGINS, Stanford, Ky.

PERSONAL POINTS.

R. H. CROW, of Warren, arrived yesterday.

MISS ANNIE and LOU DUNN are visiting in Danville.

CLARENCE TATE, of Kentucky University, spent a few days at home.

MISS KATIE T. WILCOXSON, of Christianburg, is visiting Miss Helen Stout.

MISS FANNIE PORTWOOD is with Mrs. W. H. Miller, after several weeks' stay at Nicholasville.

MISS MARY MYERS and Libbie Pagan, of Millersburg College, were with Mr. S. S. Myers Easter.

MR. and MRS. E. P. OWSELEY and Mattie Hays, of Hustonville, spent several days at the Myers House.

MISS LAURA ELLIS, of Louisville, is back at her former post of trimmer in Mrs. Dudderar's millinery.

MISS SALLIE GREEN and Ida Pettus, of Crab Orchard, are visiting the family of Mr. J. W. Proctor, Advocate.

EX. GOV. J. R. HINDMAN and Judges Wm. Garnett and H. C. Baker, of Columbia, came up to the railroad meeting.

MISS MAMIE LYNN, who is attending college at Georgetown, spent Easter at home, to the great delight of "Will" and others.

MESSRS. J. C. RODEMER and W. H. Spradlin, of the Cumberland railroad, were promptly on hand at the meeting yesterday.

MR. J. D. ADKINS, former postmaster at Williamsburg, has decided to study medicine and is now attending lectures in Louisville.

MRS. TOM PATTERSON and daughter, Bessie, arrived from Tyler, Texas, Saturday after encountering storms and floods on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCormick.

THE annual Banquet of the University Alumni Association at Louisville, will be held at the Louisville Hotel Friday night. Dr. Hugh Reid has been invited and will likely attend.

MR. J. MAT MARTIN is rapidly recovering from the severe operation performed on him. In naming the surgeons who operated Dr. Morris, of Maywood, was unintentionally omitted.

MESSRS. H. E. HUNTINGTON, general manager of the K. C., and G. C. Lockhart and W. S. Millsap, Covington lawyers, came over on a special train to look after the Cumberland railroad matters.

MRS. J. W. HAYDEN, who is a natural as well as a cultivated artist, amused herself by painting numerous Easter eggs and presenting them to her friends, of whom the I. J.'s family is proud to be numbered.

MR. J. R. MARSH was the only newspaper man with us yesterday. He tells us that he hopes to issue the first number of his paper at Lancaster next week. It will be a weekly of eight pages and A No. 1 matter.

Mrs. W. L. Dawson has taken the agency for Stanley's latest book, "In Darkest Africa," which is being gotten out by the Scribners. She says the Physicians and Surgeons' Soap, for which she is agent, still goes like hot cakes and that she has disposed of over six gross.

MESSRS. J. C. STEEL and Harry Bailey came over from Georgetown with Sam Menefee and Richard Newland to the oratorical contest and spent a few days with them. Will Lackey, Joe Jones, Jesse Wearen, T. W. and O. L. Jones, of Central University, also attended the contest.

MR. CLARENCE E. WOOD, the bright and genial local editor of the Richmond Register, came down to the oratorical contest wearing the colors of his alma mater, Central University, and spent a couple of days with his school-boy friends in this vicinity. Though a married man of five years standing, he is still one of the boys and joins with a will in all their sports and pastimes.

CITY AND VICINITY.

A FULL stock of Ziegler Bros. celebrated shoes just received. S. H. Shanks.

It is reported that Miss Mary Varnon has purchased Judge M. C. Sautley's house and lot for $3,200.

FOR RENT.—My house and garden. Place has on it an abundance of fruit of all varieties. Mrs. E. C. Helm.

THE Stanford agency collected $5,900 in premiums for insurance companies last year and paid $4,417 in fire losses.

PERSISTENT advertising never failed to pay. We have just sold a buggy to a gentleman in Garrard, who saw the advertisement that has been running some time.

THERE will be a hop at Walton's Opera House Friday night, given by the young dancing club. This is their first effort, but they will no doubt acquit themselves handsomely.

ALL kinds of garden seed at S. S. Myers'.

FOR SALE or rent the Carpenter House. Apply to D. R. Carpenter.

New lot of Men's and boys' spring clothing just received at S. H. Shanks'.

A NEW and beautiful line of one and eight-day clocks at W. B. McRoberts'.

SINCE he has gotten to be such a railroad promoter, Squire Portman calls him Vandeverbilt.

A LARGE and beautiful line of glassware just received at A. A. Warren's Model Grocery.

FRENCH'S Circus will pitch its tents on Mack Bruce's place, opposite Mrs. Lou Shanks', on the 15th.

FIELD'S Minstrels played in Hamilton, O., last night. They say Old Al has just been coining money this season.

LANDRETH's, Ferry's and Crossman's garden seeds in bulk and packages, onion sets, N. Y. seed potatoes, etc., at A. A. Warren's Model Grocery.

S. C. POLLARD, representing the Blue Grass Hedge Co., will call on the farmers of this county in a few days to put out their hedges ordered of him. Be ready for him.

A LOT on Main street, Stanford, containing 1 1/2-10 acres and very desirable, for sale. Also a lot of chairs, including several rockers. Apply at INTERIOR JOURNAL office. T. R. Walton.

W. O. RIGNEY has been made teller in the Citizen's National Bank and has withdrawn from the race for county clerk of Garrard. This gives "Shorty" Wherritt a clear field and insures his election. Bully all around.

THE first-born of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hail has arrived and is a bouncing boy, finely developed, especially as to lungs, so his happy papa tells us. Mr. Hail is teller of the Somerset Banking Co., and his friends there sent him by one mail 21 letters of congratulation.

HI HALL, the man who laid in jail here so long for safe-keeping, was convicted at Harlan C. H. of murder and sentenced to 21 years. Judge Boyd had to send to Leslie county for a jury to try Wils Jennings. The situation in Harlan is far from assuring and the presence of the troops is all, it is said that prevents a collision between the factions.

MR. J. J. ALLEN, formerly of this county, has gone into the real estate business at the boom town of Johnson City, Tenn., and is ready to serve his friends at reasonable rates. A big auction sale is to occur there the 9th and 10th, to which the railroads will give reduced rates. The city is at the gateway to the mineral and timber laden Alleghenies and is bound to grow.

A TRAMP printer worked Somerset by pretending to get a dispatch to go to Mansfield, O., to take a position in a base ball team at $125 per month. On the strength of it, says the Reporter, he got a suit of clothes on credit from W. C. Davis, had a bogus draft cashed at the bank for $25 and then departed between two suns, after letting his valise and himself out of a two-story window to keep from paying a month's board bill. He has not since been heard from.

CIRCUIT COURT.—After holding the jury in the James vs David Pepples case, over a day and night, Judge Morrow discharged it Friday evening when it was found that it was divided exactly 6 and 6, one side believing that David's name to the note was a forgery and the other that he had affixed it himself. Another jury, after hanging for some time gave Grove Kennedy a verdict for $140 in a damage suit for $345 against J. Matt Phillips for selling him hogs with the cholera. Mr. Kennedy proved that not only did all the hogs he bought of Phillips die, but they gave the disease to his other hogs, many of which died also. J. W. James against B. G. Gover to compel him to pay for goods bought in the name of Gover & Rhineheart was decided in favor of Gover, although he was the worst rattled witness ever seen in a court room. Court will convene again this morning.

THE municipal election resulted as we believed it would in the re-election of the old board of councilmen, with the exception that A. A. McKinney was substituted for W. H. Miller, who declined to run. The promised opposition failed to materialize to any considerable extent, though a list of names, supposed to be in the interest of the dry element, was placed on the books. Several of these, including J. N. Menefee and Wm. Daugherty, said that their names were used without authority and had them erased. John M. McRoberts, who was not a candidate, got 4 votes and 7 persons complimented Col. Welch with their votes, without his knowledge or desire. Stephen S. Myers, the only announced candidate of the opposition, polled 4 votes, while Dr. W. B. Penny, an independent, counted 35. The vote of the old board stood 113 each for E. H. Burnside, A. T. Nunnally, I. M. Bruce and J. G. Carpenter. D. W. Vandever got 112, J. W. Hayden 105 and A. A. McKinney 104. Judge W. R. Carson had no opposition for police judge and received 112 votes. The law requiring the poll tax to be paid before voting brought $75 into the treasury.

We have placed all our accounts and notes with Harvey Helm for collection. He will be found at Hill & McRoberts law office. Owsley & Craig.

At the election Saturday the old board of directors were re-elected for the Danville and Crab Orchard pike, which means the retention as president of that clever gentleman, John S. Bosley.

JOHN NEWLAND, who has made one of the best marshals Stanford has ever had, is a candidate for re-election. We are sure that most of the councilmen agree with us on this point and will elect him over any opposition.

A DISPATCH from Lancaster says that Judge James Patterson was pulled from his horse by one he was leading and sustained injuries that will doubtless prove fatal. He is 80 years old and served as county judge of Garrard from 1852 to 1858.

THE county court granted liquor license yesterday to T. L. Shelton and Thomas Ferrell, Rowland, and Mrs. S. Vanderpool, Sam Hardin and Mrs. M. L. Harris, Crab Orchard. W. A. Carson says he is going to keep the latter in great style.

My trimmer, Miss Laura Ellis, of Louisville, returned yesterday with a large assortment of trimmers' supplies, which she will be glad to wait on the public to. I will go to Cincinnati to-day to replenish my stock and during my absence she will have charge of the store, Mrs. Kate Dudderar.

THE would-be Rowland saloon-keepers came near not getting there. Mr. Warren had a law passed in the House, at the request of the trustees there, fixing the liquor license at not less than $50 nor more than $150. Senator Breckinridge amended the bill so as to make the minimum $500 and the maximum $1,000. On hearing this a petition was gotten up signed by the trustees and the Stanford councilmen, asking the senator to reconsider. Bright Ferrill was dispatched with the paper and after laying the matter before him, he agreed to make the license not less than $150 nor more than $200.

It is a cold day indeed when the Kentucky Central railroad is not sold or consolidated. The latest is that the C. & O. deal is off and that the K. C. has been sold to the Bruce-Thomas syndicate, which will operate it in the interest of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia. The object of the deal, as stated by the Cincinnati Enquirer, is to shut off as much business as possible from the Cincinnati Southern, which has also been secured by the E. T. V. & G., so that the rental, which now amounts to $912,000 will be reduced. The C. S. cost Cincinnati $18,000,000, the interest on which is $1,261,000, which the city has to pay, or $349,000 yearly more than she gets from the road.

It may not be generally known, but there are four places in this county where the sale of liquors is prohibited by act of legislature. The session of 1883-4 passed a law prohibiting the sale within 11 miles of Moreland, another prohibiting the sale within two miles of Waynesburg, a third within two miles of Mt. Pleasant church and a fourth within two miles of the school-house in District No. 15. Judge Varnon decides that these laws held in abeyance by the prohibition enactment of 1886 are brought into active operation by the repeal of that law, and he therefore refused to grant a license to the applicant at Moreland and will refuse any applications from the other places.

THE Inter-Collegiate oratorical contest which was held in the Second Presbyterian church, Danville, Friday evening, was attended by over 1,000 persons. The contestants were Robert Cave, of Kentucky University; H. L. Godsey, of Centre College; D. C. Lilly, of Central University; R. A. Burton, of the State College, and C. E. Mitchell, of Georgetown, and all acquitted themselves superbly. The judges awarded the handsome medal to the Centre College entry and he was nearly pulled to pieces by his exultant supporters, who carried him on their shoulders amid deafening cheers. This is Mr. Godsey's second winning of the honors, which all admit he deserves. A hop was given after the contest at the Gilcher House. The credit of originating these contests is due to Mr. Harvey Helm, of this place, who wears the distinction with becoming dignity.

SERVED THEM RIGHT.—Four Lexington bloods, S. C. Pottenger, James Pugh, Louis Mulligan and Blythe Anderson amused themselves while coming to the oratorical contest at Danville, shooting and otherwise misbehaving at and near Bryantsville. Before reaching there they shot at a man who was fishing; shot just between two men who were walking along the turnpike; invited some girls to get in and ride with them; stopped in Bryantsville and swore a few lines. Passing on they fired into a school-house while school was in session. They were pursued to Danville and Anderson captured. He was fined $75, which he paid and the others will have to pony up a like amount when caught. A few minutes in jail ought to be added to the fine. It is also said that some of them insulted the wife of Rev. S. C. Humphreys, a prominent Baptist preacher, by making indecent proposals to her.

THE Lincoln Building and Savings Association will begin on Saturday, April 5, '90, to issue a new series of stock. H. J. Darst and A. A. Warren are authorized to receive subscriptions for same.

YESTERDAY was probably the last county court that will be held here on the first Monday. The House has passed a bill changing it to the second Monday and the Senate will follow suit at once.

WHEN P. W. Green applied to the court yesterday for license to sell liquors in Hustonville, he was confronted by a petition from the anti-saloon people asking the judge not to grant it. Green had prepared for this by getting up a petition himself and when they were presented to the court it was found that about 20 of the same names appeared on both. Several of these double signers were negroes, who swore that the anti had induced them to sign their paper by offering them $12 suits, $5.50 in money and various other sums. One swore that in addition to $2.50 he had been promised all the whiskey he could drink. At noon Judge Varnon said he would see some more of the fellows that had signed the paper and the were accordingly sent for, the court adjourning until 5 o'clock for the purpose. Three witnesses appeared at that hour and they testified that they had been importuned and "devised" till they signed the paper to get rid of them. There were four men on the anti petition not entitled to vote and a number who said they had signed it without knowing its true intent. Judge Varnon thereupon granted the license. The whole matter showed a very unfortunate state of affairs to characterize in by no severe language.

RAILROAD MEETING.—A very large crowd gathered at the railroad meeting yesterday, filling the court-house to the walls. Mr. W. H. Miller led off in a sensible speech, showing the benefits that would be derived from the road and urging the people to take $25,000 stock in it. The amount would not have to be paid for 30 years and it would not cost over 5 cents on the $100 to pay it. He was followed by Gov. Hindman, who spoke very encouragingly about the road and told how anxious the county of Adair was to have it built. Judges Baker and Garnett, also from Adair, made highly favorable speeches and were followed by D. W. Vandever, J. C. Rodeemer and Judge Varnon. At the conclusion of the speaking a motion was made and carried that no money should be paid till the road is completed to the Casey county line. A petition was then presented and scores of men signed it asking the county court to order an election in the Stanford and Turnersville precincts on the question of subscribing $25,000 to the stock of the company, to be used in paying for the right-of-way. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and the people seemed in earnest about securing the road.

MR. H. E. HUNTINGTON, manager of the K. C., met with the commissioners last evening and spoke very favorably about the building of the Cumberland. He promised to ride over the line in the next few weeks and report his decision. The commissioners effected an organization last night.
